Your offer of help would be very much appreciated once again this year, we need extra hands to help with the preparations on Mon. 24th Dec. and help with serving and clearing away on the day.

If anyone can help with driving i.e. bringing people to the lunch/taking them home afterwards, we would also like to hear from you.

Advent Festival straight after 10.30 Mass today in the hall, lots of fun, delicious food, wonderful crafts to make and take home, and best of all time to make new friends. We want family, friends, grandparents, children and you to come. This is a great opportunity to share lunch, be creative, help the children and get to know more people – so please do come into the hall after Mass. We are sure you will enjoy it.

Hall Curtains will be fitted on the 11th Dec. This had been delayed due to problems with the upper windows in the hall.

Jesse Tree You will have seen the Jesse Tree in the Narthex on your way into Church. if you would like to help the Apostleship of the Sea this Christmas in providing small gifts for our seafarers and their families then please take a gift tag home with you. Your gift can be left in the box in the Narthex.

Many of you will remember that he made an appeal on behalf of the Society of St James a few months ago while he was working in South America. His time is now up and he has returned to the Diocese to await a permanent appointment next year. In the meantime he will be helping out in the parish, I hope you will welcome him warmly.
