HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY The churches of Newmarket invite you to share in an Inter-church Act of Remembrance to commemorate HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY in our church on Sun. 27th Jan. 7.00pm.

Café (Catholic Faith Exploration) The first session of our Café programme which will run throughout LENT will take place on Tuesday 12th February from 7.00-9.00pm. The series is about the CREED, you are warmly welcome to attend this and any subsequent sessions as you wish. You don't have to commit yourself to the whole programme.

EDUCATION SUNDAY today is Education Sunday and the 10.30am Mass is a children's Mass. That means that the readings will be from the children's Lectionary and the Sermon will be at the children's level. There is, therefore, no children's liturgy. The children will be undertaking some of the ministry such as readings, bidding prayers, offertory, greeting and collections. The Mass will be followed by a Bring and Share lunch in the Parish centre. Please come and make it a very special occasion for the children and the parish.

Fr. Michael Just a little update to say that Fr. Michael is recovering, the operation went very well and I am sure all the prayers have helped, so thank you. We hope he will be discharged from hospital soon, do continue to remember him in your prayers please. You are welcome to call the office to make further enquiries.

Film Night The next get together will be on Wed. 23rd Jan at 7.30pm to watch "The Pianist", do come along and enjoy some good company as you watch a true story of Wladyslaw Szpilman, bring a friend, all welcome. For more information on the film see board at back of Church.

Churches Together In Wickhambrook are holding a service for the Week of Christian Prayer for Unity on Tuesday 22nd Jan. at 3.00pm at the United Reformed Church followed by a committee meeting. There is also a Play For Easter being planned called "The Gates of Dawn", Churches Together In Wickhambrook are looking for anyone who may be interested in taking part. Contact John Seal on 01440 820631.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Today Sunday 20th at Christchurch (opposite St. Mary's square) at 6.30pm, please come along and bring a friend. We would like to see as many people as possible there from our Church.

QUIET DAYS FOR LAY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

All lay ministers of holy communion (as Eucharistic ministers are now known) are expected to receive regular training and to take part in quiet days. We have been remiss about this lately. But with Lent coming up, we should all get together if at all possible for a time of reflection and prayer. Fr Martin and Deacon John will each lead one session and we hope you can get to one of them. The dates are SAT 9 FEB from after the 0915 Mass until 1300; and SUN 17 FEB from after the 1030 Mass until about 345pm (including a break – so bring a packed lunch to that one. PLEASE let the office know which one you would like to attend, and let us know if both are impossible for you.

Lectio Divina

Is the traditional way to read the Scriptures, as practised in monasteries down the centuries.

Our Scripture group meets every two weeks to pray in this ancient way.

You are very welcome to come to the next meeting on Thurs. 24th Jan. 7.30pm in the Bar room.

NEWMARKET OPEN DOOR invites you to a film show on Monday 28th January in the church hall to see the recently released BBC TV production "Stuart—A Life Backwards". This exceptional superior film is based on a true story about a developing friendship between a homeless man and a charity fundraiser, set against the background of their involvement in the campaign to free the jailed charity workers known as the "Cambridge Two".

Doors open at 7.00pm for a 7.30pm start. Admission is free and refreshments will be available. TERRY WAITE CBE, our President, looks forward to personally welcoming all those able to come along

HOMELESSNESS SUNDAY 27th January there will be a brief annual update on the activities of NEWMARKET OPEN DOOR by one of the trustees of the charity. We realise that many of you support many charities, however if you would like to support Newmarket Open Door there will be discrete baskets at the back of the Church on the day as you leave.
