A good roast or meat stew won't make you a bad person, nor a fish fillet will make you a saint. Eat what you want, the sacrifice is not in the stomach, but in the heart. It is better to seek a deeper relationship with God through unconditionally loving others rather than refrain from eating meat.

Nigel Brynolf-Trett' Funeral Mass.

It was with great sadness that we learned of the sudden death of Nigel Brynolf-Trett. A faithful, hard worker for the Church and community and a great unassuming friend to us all. His Funeral Mass will be held here in OLISE on Friday 15th March at 12:00. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Parish Fundraising

Once again, a huge thank you for the monies raised last Sunday on our book stall. We raised £117! As I mentioned before, the parish has incurred several large bills over the past few months, not least the heating and gas bills. We are also fundraising to pay for a new fire alarm system for the church and the various rooms as the existing is now out of date, plus a new lightning conductor. Our next venture will involve the children of our parish. We would like them to look around and see if there are any toys, puzzles or games that they would be willing to donate and we could hold a tombola ensuring that every child gets a prize. The items can be left in the Narthex or the office. This will be held on Sunday 17th March before and after the 11.00a.m. Mass. Many thanks for all your generosity, Anne Turnbull.
