“Father, forgive them; for they know not what they are doing.”

(Luke 23:34).

A Poet cried, “The love once thought worth dying for, now descends to my well-guarded fortress, melting the icy ego at my frozen core.” When I am at my worst and display wickedness, God empathises and shows compassion for me.

This week we silently and prayerfully contemplate Jesus’s first word on the cross to be with him in his suffering, so that we feel strength and mercy in our hearts.

“I inhale mercy and exhale myself”

Inviting young adults to “Transform for Holy Week” March 31st - 2nd April

A special weekend for young people age 16+ to go deeper in their faith and help prepare for Holy Week and Easter. The weekend will be a time to retreat from the busyness of life and include talks, music and prayer. Come for a day or the whole weekend. Held at Clare Priory in Suffolk. For more information, please see www.transform4.co.uk

Car Parking

Sadly we are unable to use Edmundson Hall car park, after years of their generosity. Consequently parking at church is at a premium but we cannot ignore health and safety. There must be access for emergency vehicles around the church, especially at busy times. Please park within parking bays and, importantly, not on double yellow lines which are there to keep emergency access clear. There is a car park opposite church and other alternatives. It may be annoying to park elsewhere when time is short but we are fortunate to have the parking that we have.
