Palm Sunday

On this day of great rejoicing,
Lord Jesus Christ, when we welcome
You as our King and Savior, we also walk in the shadow of Your cross.

Hosanna! we cry,
Blessed are You who come in God's name to save us.

Hosanna!

Strengthen our faith on this Palm Sunday so that when the time comes to carry the cross we might still call out to You with heartfelt praise.

Give us the grace and the courage to follow You this Holy Week from death to resurrection, from darkness to the fullness of light.

We need You,
Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior.
Hosanna!

Homes for Ukraine Matching Service

Caritas Social Action Network, in partnership with St John of God Hospitaller Services, an international Catholic Charity with many services for the vulnerable in the UK and Ireland, are matching Ukrainian people displaced by the brutal war in their country with people in the Catholic community willing to host them in their homes for six months. If you have room in your home and in your heart to consider welcoming a stranger displaced by war, then we'd love to hear from you. Please visit <https://sjog-homesforukraine.uk/> for more information.

Chrism Mass.

Bishop Peter Collins will celebrate his first Chrism Mass in the Diocese of East Anglia on Tuesday April 4 at 11.30am and all clergy and laity are invited to join him. The Chrism Mass is the most important Diocesan celebration where the Bishop, clergy, religious and laity gather to celebrate the sacramental life.

Bishop Peter said: "I would ask that we gather in a spirit of solidarity to express our Diocesan identity and to reiterate our commitment to the mission of evangelisation." During the Mass, the Sacred Chrism is consecrated and the Oil of Catechumens and the Oil of the Sick are blessed. These are the oils that are then distributed from the Mother Church of the Cathedral for use in every parish community. The Mass will also be live streamed at: www.youtube.com/@rcdea
