Fr. Christopher writes: After consultation I have decided to take Monday as my weekly day off. I am very grateful to Fr. Anthony for ensuring that Mass will be celebrated on that day. Unless otherwise announced Mass on Monday will be at 10am.

One of the things that impresses me with the parish here in Newmarket is the significant numbers of people who pop into the church in the course of the day, either to light a candle and ask for Our Lady's prayers, or to be quiet and still in the sacramental presence of our Lord before the Tabernacle.

The prayer board in the Lady chapel is a great idea, it enables us to support and pray for one another. The problem is that it is looking rather weary with prayer intentions that have been up, in some cases for many a year. The Prayer Board over the next few weeks will be revamped. Please place on the board peoples' names and intentions for whom you are asking prayers. Please be sure to date your request as each slip of paper will be displayed for two months.

In addition a monthly Mass will be offered for all intentions on the Board.

Your prayers are asked
