Fr. Michael Teader RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Fr. Michael Teader, a much loved parish priest of Haverhill. Fr. Michael died peacefully on 7th February, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church.

Pope Francis has encouraged the Church to be bold and to go out to the periphery, to the edges. This is what Fr Michael was to do as teacher, deacon and priest. As a teacher he had a special concern for children whom others would deem difficult. His prison ministry bore great fruit. Seminarians were sent to him on pastoral placement and saw at first hand pastoral priesthood as it was lived.

He was responsible for the building of the new church in Haverhill. More important than the construction of a building was Fr Michael's building up of the Catholic community in Haverhill so it became what it is today: a vibrant, outward-looking, multicultural community united in worship, service and witness. In the town, Fr Michael pioneered the St Nicholas' Hospice Hub, which sought to take hospice chaplaincy out into the community. Fr Michael once said of his prison ministry that he sought to 'open a window onto the love and mercy of God'. That characterised not only his prison work but the whole of his ministry as a deacon and priest.

Although on his own admission somewhat shy by nature, Michael had a natural capacity for friendship and he had a wide circle of friends. He was great company. Among his interests were gardening, reading, travel, music and art. His was a life well lived in friendship with God and others.

May the Lord he so faithfully served bring him to the joy and life of Heaven.

Pastoral Care— Please let Fr. Christopher know of anyone who is ill, either at home or in hospital, so that the appropriate pastoral and sacramental care can be given.

'GOODBYE CHRISTOPHER ROBIN' The father-son relationship between Alan Alexander Milne, an author, and his son, Christopher Robin, is profound. Their bonding inspires Alan to write about the magical world of 'Winnie-the-Pooh'.

But the success and fame of the books came at a cost to both Milne and his family.

Join us to watch this lovely film. Free admission. All welcome.

Welcome to our First Holy Communion children, and their families, who are with us this weekend for their Inscription Mass. During Mass the children will sign their names as a mark of commitment as they prepare for their First Holy Communion, which will take place later in the year.
