Today in celebrating Our Lady's Assumption, body and soul to the glory of Heaven, God is giving us a preview of what, please God, will be our destiny at the end of time. Today's celebration is one of hope. This is the reason why we can echo the words of St Paul in his Letter to the Romans when he writes that, he considers that the glory God has revealed for us far outweighs the sufferings and difficulties of this present age.

With this in mind let us make our own the sentiments of Our Lady's hymn the Magnificat. Let us proclaim the greatness of the Lord, for in the Assumption of Mary his lowly servant to the glory of Heaven, he has done great things for her, the pledge and promise that he in turn will do great things for us.

As we journey through life let us rejoice too, that Jesus as he was dying on the Cross entrusted us to the maternal care of his mother. Let us ask her intercession on our pilgrim way, praying that after this our exile she will show unto us the blessed fruit of her womb Jesus.

Holy Communion outside of Mass

I am aware that some people cannot wear a face covering/mask because of medical problems. With this in mind, anyone who is unable to be at Mass because they cannot wear a face covering/mask but who would like to receive Holy Communion please contact the parish office and Fr Christopher can arrange for them to receive Holy Communion at a mutually agreeable time in Church. Holy Communion to the housebound will be resumed as soon as we have the green light from the bishops for this to take place.

Fr Christopher.

Congratulations to Phoebe and Teo who were married in Kirtling church on Saturday.

We wish them many blessings and happiness in their married life.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION (CONFESSIONS)

Confessions will be heard as usual on Saturday after the 10am Mass and on Saturday evening from 5.30pm until 5.50pm. Following guidelines from the Bishops, the confessional/reconciliation room will not be used. Confessions will be heard in the committee room in the parish centre.
