THURSDAY PRAYER GROUP

We are now running a new series of sessions praying for Peace – peace in the world, peace in our own land, peace in our own families and in our own lives. We will focus on material produced by Pax Christi (the international Catholic agency for peace, justice and reconciliation). They commissioned a beautiful icon from a community near Jerusalem and each week we will explore a different panel of this icon – the first of which, for example, is of Jacob and Esau, the twin sons of Isaac and Rebekah, focusing on the conflict that ensued between their descendant nations following Jacob's deception of their aged and blind father, Isaac, in order to receive Esau's birthright/blessing from Isaac. We will explore our own reactions to the icon and how it helps us to see how conflict spreads and how it can be resolved and healed; and that will us prayer focus.

This will run for another five weeks in combination with Holy Hour on 5 November. Join us if you can.

Cana – Want to deepen your relationship, to enrich your marriage? Take time for your Couple!

Booking your seat for Mass.— We are delighted to see so many of you attending Mass at the weekend. It is good that you are feeling safe in your church, and we will endeavour to continue providing a safe environment as best we can for us all to gather together in Mass.

Thank you to those of you who are booking your seats for the weekend Masses before the Friday 1pm deadline. It is really helpful with the seat allocation, and reduces disruption to the Mass.

There are however some parishioners who book after the Friday deadline, we would really appreciate if all the bookings can be made before the deadline. We are very pleased to be reaching capacity at the 6pm and 10.30am Mass, therefore it is very important to secure your seats for these two Masses in particular, as we do want to ensure we can accommodate all. You might wish to consider coming to the 9am Mass, if you have difficulties booking a seat for either of these Masses. It is also helpful, for seat allocation purposes, if you are booking a family seat, to specify how many are in your family. Try to arrive at church at least 10 minutes before Mass is due to start. As always, face coverings must be worn whilst in Church, and that social distancing must be observed in Church and in the car park.

UNIVERSALIS - This app is available for PC, Mac, iPhone and Android. For just £9.99 this will give you the order of the Mass, readings at Mass and the Divine Office. As Mass books and cards cannot be given out in Church you might like to consider this investment.
