MOTHERING SUNDAY

Today we thank God for Our Mothers, whether living or departed. Happy Mother's day to all Mothers !

INTENTIONS FOR PRAYER

Our prayers are asked for the following intentions:

- For a devout observance of Lent.
- For all those who have lapsed from the faith.
- For the needy and the hungry and for the work of CAFOD.
- For world leaders and government as they seek to deal with the pandemic.
- For the sick and those who care for them.
- For all those who died of covid in the last year and for all who mourn.

FRATELLI TUTTI- BROTHERS AND SISTERS ALL

Let us return to promoting the good, for ourselves and for the whole human family, and thus advance together towards an authentic and integral growth. Every society needs to ensure that values are passed on; otherwise, what is handed down are selfishness, violence, corruption in all its forms indifference and ultimately a life closed to transcendence and entrenched in individual interests.

Pope Francis

LENT 2021

Lent and Holy Week will not be celebrated as we normally would do. Thank God we can still come together for the celebration of Mass. We observe all the necessary protocols and we would encourage those who are hesitant about coming back to Mass to return. If you are uncomfortable about large numbers, why not come to weekday Mass?

There are also a number of online resources for Lent. These are just a few suggestions:

- The Jesuits in Britain are proposing an online retreat. For more information, please see www.onlineprayer.net
- Ampleforth Abbey are proposing a weekly retreat on Saturdays. For more details, please see the Ampleforth Abbey website.
- Each week, a priest from our diocese is giving a talk on an aspect of Lent. For more details, please visit the Diocesan website.
- Fr Denis MacBride, a well known retreat giver, is giving an online retreat. For full details, visit the Redemptorist Publications website.
