INTENTIONS FOR PRAYER

Our prayers are asked for the following intentions:

- ◆ For a devout observance of Holy Week and Easter
- ◆ For those preparing for full Communion with the Catholic Church.
- ◆ For the sick and those who care for them
- ◆ For the dead, especially those we have known and loved.

FRATELLI TUTTI- BROTHERS AND SISTERS ALL

In God's plan, each individual is called to promote his or her own development, and this includes finding the best economic and technological means of multiplying goods and increasing wealth. Business abilities which are a gift from God, should always be directed to the development of others and to eliminate poverty, especially through the creations of diversified work opportunities.

Pope Francis

CONFESSIONS

Confessions will be heard on Good Friday at 7pm and on Holy Saturday at 10:30 am

Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday

Perhaps some of us can remember our school Reports and those four words that went with them, "could have done better". When we look back over our observance of Lent, so often those words are strangely appropriate. If we don't feel ready for Holy Week and Easter,- don't despair, rather let God do the work for us. I leave you today with some words of encouragement given by Sister Rachel to the Carmelite Nuns in Quidenham in our Dioceses.

Sister Rachel, the then Prioress wrote "On Palm Sunday we reach the Quay-side, A great ship is Fretting at the moorings, sail unfurling in the bright sunshine; a beautiful ship with the line and grace of a bird. A cry goes out, "All aboard".

This great ship of Holy Week, will carry us surely, strongly into the Passion of Christ and beyond to Easter. On the prow is blazened the name, "Love's victory". All we have to do is to board the ship and allow it to take us all the way. We have only to say, "let it be done. Give me all you want to give me. Be my Saviour, be my God". Let us then board the ship full of Humble gratitude and trust. "But I have not got to the quayside even. It seems to me, I have wasted Lent," never mind. Here you are brought by the community of the Church. Get on Board ! The moorings are cast, the sails billow in the breeze and we are carried off deep into the mystery of Jesus. The mystery of his death and resurrection. Fr. Christopher.
