INTENTIONS FOR PRAYER

Our prayers are asked for the following intentions:

- ◆ For those preparing for full Communion with the Catholic Church.
- ◆ For the sick and those who care for them
- ◆ For the dead, especially those we have known and loved
- ◆ For women who are victims of violence, that they may be protected by society and have their sufferings considered and heeded.
- ◆ For those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

FRATELLI TUTTI- BROTHERS AND SISTERS ALL

Indeed, when we open our hearts to those who are different, this enables them, while continuing to be ourselves, to develop in new ways. The different cultures that have flourished over the centuries need to be preserved, lest our world be impoverished. At the same time, those cultures should be encouraged to be open to new experiences through their encounter with other realities, for the risk of succumbing to cultural sclerosis is always present.

Pope Francis

An Easter Reflection

In the risen Christ Death has lost its hold over mankind. Death is not for us the end of the story. It is the beginning of a new chapter. There is life after death. It is life with God. The purpose of our present life is to prepare for that.

Easter is not only concerned with life after death. It has much to say about life here on earth. Life matters. Human life is both of the body and of the spirit; in our present state each depends on the other. Life depends on love. Life gives love its real meaning and its purpose. Our Easter faith assures us that life will overcome death and love will triumph over hatred.

Easter does not take suffering away from us, nor does it save us from physical death. But suffering and death are now different, because Christ suffered and died. Indeed, before Christ rose from the dead there was only despair at the centre of pain. Now, and because of Christ, there is hope. When we know pain or depression, when we feel abandoned or when we are dying, we remember that Christ had done the same experiences. Our suffering brings us closer to Christ and closer to God.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

The envelopes for the new financial year are now available at the back of Church. Please pick up your box as you leave Mass today.

MONTANA CARE

Montana Care home has currently got one single room available. If anyone would be interested please feel free to contact the care home or Sr Thaya Moses at :
montant.gtbarton@tbconnect.com

On behalf of Deacon John, Deacon James and myself, I would like to wish you all a very happy Easter. May the Risen Lord strengthen your faith and bring you fresh hope.

Compared with last year, it is good to have been able to celebrate Holy Week as a community in Church; albeit with restrictions. I would like to thank those who have worked so hard to ensure the dignified and prayerful celebration of the Liturgies. Our special thanks go to the following; rota coordinators and stewards, musicians, readers; sacristans and servers; Kasia in the office; cleaners and those who have arranged the flowers so beautifully. Thanks too, for all who give of their time and talents in the service of God and this community.

Fr. Christopher.
