FRATELLI TUTTI- BROTHERS AND SISTERS ALL

Dialogue is often confused with something quite different: the feverish exchange of opinions on social networks, frequently based on media information that is not always reliable. These exchanges are merely parallel monologues. They may attract some attention by their sharp and aggressive tone. But monologues engage on one, and their content is frequently self-serving and contradictory.

Pope Francis.

THIS WEEKEND

There is a second collection for Stella Maris— formerly known as the Apostleship of the Sea. This organisation sponsors the chaplains and chaplaincies which are found in the major ports of the UK. Stella Maris providers for the spiritual and material needs of seafarers who visit our ports. Later in the year we shall be collecting toiletries and gloves which will be distributed by the chaplaincy in the port of Felixstowe to those seafarers who are in need.

CONGRATULATIONS

We offer our prayers for Kathryn Schosland and our congratulations to Kathryn as she is received into full communion with the Catholic Church through the sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist.

Prayerful reading & reflection on Sunday's Readings

This takes place after Thursday Evening Mass.

CHURCH FLOWERS

Please sign up on the list in the narthex if you would like to take a turn at arranging the church flowers. Flowers in front of the altar and the lectern are all that is required for an ordinary Sunday. It doesn't have to be an elaborate arrangement, just flowers in a vase is very acceptable. Flowers can be arranged at home and brought in or arranged at church. Everyone is welcome to have a turn, consider it especially if you haven't done it before or not for some time.

STAMP COLLECTION collecting used stamps for Macmillan Cancer Support. This worthwhile charity will receive donations of £7.50 plus VAT for every kilo donated. Please place any used stamps (with a margin of 1 cm surrounding the stamp) in the box marked Stamps in the Narthex. Many thanks Nigel Brynolf-Trett

LIFTING OF COVID RESTRICTIONS

By next weekend I hope to be in a position to be able to tell you how this will impact our celebration of Sunday Mass. The Bishops are due to issue amended guidelines. Thank you for your understanding.

Fr. Christopher.

LIVE STREAM

Since the lockdown started, an increasing number of Diocese of East Anglia churches have been live streaming Masses online. Now the Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales has produced a very useful searchable guide to Masses across the whole country, including East Anglia.

It's easy to search just using your postcode or by selecting a diocese. Narrow down your search results by selecting the Mass Type (Daily, Vigil or Sunday) and you can select from the available languages. All this can be found at:

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/home/our-work/health-social-care/coronavirus-guidelines/online-mass-directory/>

As from next Sunday the 10:30am will be live-streamed in place of 9am Mass.

Thank you very much for your contribution to the Parish last weekend

Offertory (inc Standing Orders) £ 969.64
