Thoughts for the week

Thank you for your prayers on my retreat. You all are in my heart and prayers always. I have completed two month in Olise. Thank you for all your compliments and creative suggestions. I feel glad to see more parishioners attending Holy Mass and praying in the Church. I also see so many charitable acts done by SVP members. Thank you for all the volunteers, Musicians, Choir, Alterservers, flower fairies, Catechists and each one of your prayerful presence. I feel the need of the time to our parish is interior silence.

‘Silence strips man and makes him a child : pure but frail, innocent and without provisions. Silence shapes us the blacksmith works metal.’ Cardinal Robert Sarab, The Power of Silence: against the dictatorship of noise.

Silence has so much to offer us. When our actions spring from the core of inner silence we emit peace and grace.

Can I spend five minute of Silence every day? “Silence is our ministry” Thomas Merton

From Juliet and Richard
